Brief Summary:
In public elementary schools, junior high schools, and high schools, students are prohibited from wearing signs or attire through which they conspicuously exhibit a religious affiliation.
LEGAL EVOLUTION OF THE HEADSCARF CONTROVERSY

✧ First Headscarves Affair 1989
  ✧ Creil, 40 miles east of Paris
    ✧ Three junior high school girls refused to remove their hijabs in class
    ✧ The students were expelled
    ✧ They were violating the principle of laicite
    ✧ Principals refusing to admit girls wearing headscarves

✧ Francois Mittérand Administration
  ✧ Conseil d’Etat issued its opinion
  ✧ Guaranteed freedom of conscience of the students.
  ✧ Freedom of expression should not:
    ✧ Disturb the orderly conduct of a school or any other public institution.
    ✧ Affect the duty of each student to participate fully in school work
    ✧ Constitute an act of pressure or proselytization
LEGAL EVOLUTION OF THE HEADSCARF CONTROVERSY

✧ Education Directive 1994
  ✧ Ministry of Education
  ✧ Recommendations for actions
  ✧ Emphasized the importance of resolving each conflict on a case-by-case basis
  ✧ Endorsed disapproval of the wearing of any dress or symbol that might be ostentatious
    ✧ Included yarmulke, large crosses and hijab

✧ Stasi Commission 2003

✧ Headscarf Prohibition 2004
LEGAL EVOLUTION OF THE HEADSCARF CONTROVERSY GRAPH

- French Revolution 1789
- Constitution of the 4th Republic 1944
- First Headscarves Affair 1989
- Education Directive 1994
- Stasi Commission 2003
- Headscarf Prohibition 2004
RELEVANT LAWS

✧ International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR) Article 18

✧ The French Law No. 2004-228

✧ Doctrine of Laïcité
WHAT IS THE INTERNATIONAL COVENANT ON CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS?

✧ Definition

✧ Parties
  ➢ France is a signatory – does that mean it is bound?

✧ In the classroom:
  ➢ Do you think a similar law would be passed in U.S.? Why?
    ➢ separation of church and state?
    ➢ freedom of religion and expression?
    ➢ Examples?
  ➢ Would the U.S. be bound by the Covenant in a similar situation?
    ➢ Would it trump U.S. statutes?
    ➢ The Constitution?
    ➢ If no, why would France?
  ➢ What American values are represented in the Covenant?
ARTICLE 18(1) – PROTECTIONS

(1) Everyone shall have the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion. This right shall include the freedom to have or to adopt a religion or belief of his choice, and freedom, either individually or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in worship, observance, practice and teaching. . . .
Protections:

- WHO does Art. 18 protect? (Remember not all countries are signatories.)
- WHAT does Art. 18 protect?
  - What if your student wanted to practice a new religion she made up? Would that be protected?
- WHERE does this protection apply?
  - Public: How do you define this?
  - Private: What does this mean? The privacy of my own home? What about YOUR home?
- Are any sections problematic?
ARTICLE 18(3) – LIMITATIONS

3) Freedom to manifest one's religion or beliefs may be subject only to such limitations as are prescribed by law and are necessary to protect public safety, order, health, or morals or the fundamental rights and freedoms of others.
Limitations:

Proscribed By Law
AND

Necessary To Protect
EITHER

Public Safety, Order, Health, Or Morals
OR

The fundamental rights and freedoms of others
List general examples for each aspect:
- Law – (2004-228)
- Public Safety –
- Order –
- Health –
- Morals –
- Fundamental rights and freedoms of others –
Now, list past or current examples that would trigger each of these components.

- Public Safety –
- Order –
- Health –
- Morals –
- Fundamental rights and freedoms of others –
  - Did they also have a proscribed law?
- Would they fall into the exception to ICCPR?
FRENCH LAW NO. 2004-228

- Statute

- WHO: Public School Students

- WHAT: Signs that ostensibly express a religious belonging

- Consequence for violating?
Laïcité

- concept denoting the absence of religious involvement in government affairs as well as absence of government involvement in religious affairs
- 1905 Legal separation of religion and the state
LEGALITY ARGUMENTS OUTLINE

1. State Sovereignty
   - Secularist Arguments
   - Laïcité
   - Stasi Report
   - Public Schools/Educators

2. International Law
   - ICCPR, protections and limitations

3. Discriminatory

4. Gender Bias
   - Feminist arguments
   - Outside the Scope?
ARGUMENT 1 – STATE SOVEREIGNTY: SECULARISM

บาท Secularism:

บาท Religious freedom has limits; head scarves are outside of protections
บาท The scarf is considered as a symbol of belonging to the Muslim community
บาท Secularism in schools is incompatible with wearing ostentatious religious articles,
บาท Permitting the veil in schools risks opening the door to other practices that exist in the Muslim world
บาท No different than prohibiting other religious practices, such as peyote use or polygamy
Non-discriminatory Law On Its Face

President Sarkozy has said the veils imprison women and run counter to the country’s sense of equality; detractors say the ban suppresses cultural and religious expression

Declared in 2009 that face veils were "not welcome in France"

Appeal to far-right voters

Marine Le Pen, leader of the Front National

Compared Muslims praying in the streets outside overcrowded mosques to the Nazi occupation of France.

Criticized halal-only fast food restaurants

Popularity grew

The French government:

The French body politic is determined to strictly enforce the respect of every faith, every community, everywhere, and this effort begins in public schools. (BROOKINGS INSTITUTION)
ARGUMENT 1 – STATE SOVEREIGNTY: SECULARISM

✙ Freedom FROM Religion, Not Freedom OF Religion

✙ French state seeing its task as defending republicanism and secularism and consequently always seek to avoid providing official recognition of any religion.
✙ The French state’s opposition to multiculturalism is considered by some commentators to be hindering the integration of France’s Muslims.

✙ Educators

✙ Public spaces should be neutral spaces, not places to spread a particular view of the world.
✙ Duty of care to children who enter the public school system
ARGUMENT 1 – STATE SOVEREIGNTY: LAÏCITÉ

✧ Laïcité
  ✧ concept denoting the absence of religious involvement in government affairs as well as absence of government involvement in religious affairs
  ✧ 1905 Legal separation of religion and the state
Jacques Chirac Administration

- Two girls expelled from a lycée in Aubervilliers

To understand the principle of laïcité and its practical implications for and increasingly diverse France

- 20 sociologists, philosophers, politicians and educators

Testimonies on:

- Physical and verbal attacks on young women donning the hijab
- Conflicts between Muslims and Jews
- Family pressure
- Female suppression
- Isolation

Recommendations from the Stasi Commission

- Recognized tensions between Muslims and the Republic
- Recommended to detect and condemn anything that compromised the neutral character of the French State in matters of religion
- Recommended to revise the list of public holidays
- Asserted that the display of conspicuous religious symbols was unacceptable
- Recommended to establish regulations only to public and not private spaces
  - Catholic schools?
ARGUMENT 1 – STATE SOVEREIGNTY: WHERE DOES THE LAW APPLY?

✧ Public Schools
- How does this translate to the U.S. policies in schools?
  - What dress codes does your school have in place?
  - Is it the same caliber as the idea of religious freedom?
- Are educators or students bigger proponents?
  - Do they have the same motivations to maintain secularism?
    - Why would teachers want?
    - Why would students want?
ARGUMENT 1 – STATE SOVEREIGNTY: ARGUMENT TO ALLOW

Nobel Peace Prize winner Tawakkul Karman, 'The mother of Yemen's revolution,' when asked about her Hijab by journalists and how it is not proportionate with her level of intellect and education, replied: - "Man in early times was almost naked, and as his intellect evolved he started wearing clothes. What I am today and what I’m wearing represents the highest level of thought and civilization that man has achieved, and is not regressive. It’s the removal of clothes again that is regressive back to ancient times."
LEGALITY ARGUMENTS OUTLINE

① State Sovereignty
   ✧ Secularist Arguments
   ✧ Laicite
   ✧ Stasi Report
   ✧ Public Schools/Educators

① International Law
   ✧ ICCPR, protections and limitations

② Discriminatory

③ Gender Bias
   ✧ Feminist arguments
   ✧ Outside the Scope?
ARGUMENT 2 – INTERNATIONAL LAW, ICCPR: PROTECTIONS

✧ Which protections of Art. 18 could be triggered here?

➢ Manifest his religion or belief in…observance [or] practice
ARGUMENT 2 – INTERNATIONAL LAW, ICCPR: PROTECTIONS

✧ RELIGION:
   ✧ Islam Headscarf – a sign of modesty
     ▪ Religious freedom
     ▪ A head scarf ban violates the right to freedom of religion and expression
     ▪ Wearing head scarves is unlike religious extremes such as stonings
     ▪ Wearing head scarves/hijabs does no harm and violates nobody's rights
     ▪ Wearing the Hijab is protected by religious freedom under UN Charter.
   ✧ Islamic perspective
     ➢ Tradition
     ➢ Doctrine

✧ Other religions affected?
ARGUMENT 2 – INTERNATIONAL LAW, ICCPR: LIMITATIONS

What limitations of Art. 18 could be triggered here?

Remember, they are -
Proscribed by law
Public safety?
Order?
Health?
Morals?
Rights and freedoms of others?
ARGUMENT 2 – INTERNATIONAL LAW: DOES ICCPR APPLY THEN?

What group does this affect according to plain meaning? What group does it apply to in practice? Is this a loophole in the law?

IS THE BAN A VIOLATION OF INTERNATIONAL LAW?

No
- France has a very low Muslim population.
- A ban on veils only applies in public spaces.
- If Muslims don't like the policy on the veil, they can move elsewhere.

Yes
- Wearing the traditional veil is part of Muslim religious practice.
HARM: IS THE WEARING OF THE MUSLIM VEIL HARMFUL?

YES
Muslims lose-out in various ways by wearing the hijab
The Muslim veil is a mark of separation

NO
Muslim veils cannot harm anyone physically and should not harm anyone emotionally.
The traditional Muslim veil is just a head dress.
Intolerance of Muslim veils can be cited as racism.

ARGUMENT 2 – INTERNATIONAL LAW: DOES ICCPR APPLY THEN?
LEGALITY ARGUMENTS OUTLINE

1. State Sovereignty
   - Secularist Arguments
   - Laïcité
   - Stasi Report
   - Public Schools/Educators

2. International Law
   - ICCPR, protections and limitations

3. Discriminatory

4. Gender Bias
   - Feminist arguments
   - Outside the Scope?
ARGUMENT 3 - DISCRIMINATION

- Assimilation into French culture?
- Is that ok? Where do limitations come from?
- Does it matter that it's in school?
  - What if languages other than English were prohibited, would that be the same?
- Does this promote Islamophobia?

Minority group:
It is already experiencing widespread discrimination.

French government:
Laïcité, a principle of religious neutrality that is intended to create the conditions for religious freedom. The law is a principle for Muslim integration and social order.

Kenneth Roth, executive director of Human Rights Watch,
“The proposed law is an unwarranted infringement on the right to religious practice”,
“For many Muslims, wearing a headscarf is not only about religious expression, it is about religious obligation.”
IS IT WRONG TO THINK THAT THE FRENCH ARE BEING BIASED TOWARDS MUSLIMS?

YES

Religions shouldn't be given preferential treatment by the government.

NO

France is depriving Muslims of their religious practice.
LEGALITY ARGUMENTS OUTLINE

① State Sovereignty
   ✧ Secularist Arguments
   ✧ Laïcité
   ✧ Stasi Report
   ✧ Public Schools/Educators

② International Law
   ✧ ICCPR, protections and limitations

③ Discriminatory

④ Gender Bias
   ✧ Feminist arguments
   ✧ Outside the Scope?
ARGUMENT 4 – GENDER BIAS: FEMINIST ARGUMENT

✧ Required Dress Codes for Women

➢ Law of Brothers
  ✧ Social pressure to conform exerted by Muslim men on Muslim women

➢ New movement?
  ➢ General consensus among Islamic scholars that Islam prohibits compulsion
ARGUMENT 4 – GENDER BIAS: FEMINIST ARGUMENT

专项资金限制是

反直觉的

 empowerment

 French gender system

 sexuality and attraction are natural parts of life and their enactment in public thus poses no threat to politics or the public sphere.

 how can women be both different from men and equal to them.

 Muslim gender system:

 Represented by the headscarf, sex and gender are organized by a system based on covering, restraint, and the restriction of sexual availability to marriage.
Feminist Arguments

- Wearing the scarf symbolizes a woman's submission to men
- The hijab is not a free choice, but a result of social pressures
- Religious prescription on female covering as chauvinistic, patriarchal, oppressive and an enforcement on women and against their rights.
ARGUMENT 4 – GENDER BIAS: OUTSIDE THE SCOPE?

✧ Is gender discrimination covered under ICCPR?
  ➢ How does that weaken the argument that the French law helps protect women?
  ➢ How does that weaken the argument that its unlawful?
8 DIFFERENT VIEWPOINTS: EUROPE AND THE HEADSCARF

- "The world's conflicts should not be brought into the classroom"
  Alain Destexhe, Belgian politician

- "What does it mean to be British or French anyway?"
  Fareena Alam, UK magazine editor

- "You can't solve these problems with a law"
  Amir Taheri, Paris-based Iranian writer

- "We must protect young Muslim women"
  Rachida Ziouche, Algerian exile in France

- "This can only fuel extremism and fundamentalism"
  Fanny Dethloff, Lutheran clergywoman

- "The headscarf threatens the Enlightenment's achievements"
  Alice Schwarzer, German feminist

- "The scarf is a symbol of the inferior status of women"
  Binnaz Toprak, Turkish academic

- "Mulsims need to be fully involved in their society"
  Tariq Ramadan, Islamic affairs analyst
QUESTIONS?